

The Unveiling of Beauty in Jakálla players.

You are all members of the Joyous of Vrá clan (a solid High clan) from the city of Vrá. You are all teenagers from wealthy mercantile families training to be business administrators. You have heard of the celebration of the Unveiling of Beauty as, while not virgins (at your age on Tékumel that would be very unusual), you are not very well versed in sexual things and want to do some exploring. You have begged your clan Matriarch to let you go and after much coaxing and cajoling, she agrees. You board ship and sail off to Jakálla and arrive two days before the festival so that you can explore the city a bit and can observe things being set up. The Major Domo at the Joyous of Vrá clan house in Jakálla has arranged for maps and a guide brochure for you, and can arrange for you to participate in some of the ticketed events if you wish.
